Statement on the Submission of a Doctoral Thesis

I hereby confirm that the submitted version of my doctoral thesis complies with the version approved by

- () the supervisors
- () the doctoral committee in accordance with the relevant doctoral regulations.

I give a permanent simple right of use to the KIT Library, entitling the latter to make available an electronic version of my publication on KIT's central repository KITopen. The KIT Library may insert information on metadata, licenses and digital identifiers in the electronic version of my doctoral thesis. For long-term archiving, the KIT Library is allowed to convert my publication into other electronic formats and to record and publish its metadata in other databases. The KIT Library is entitled to transferring the rights granted to the German National Library, to specialized libraries requested to acquire books on a national level, and to specialized repositories.

The doctoral thesis mentioned below is my intellectual property and I declare that it does not infringe upon any third-party rights (e.g. the rights of coauthors, publishers or other third parties). The KIT shall be released from potential third-party claims.

For the case of a cumulative doctoral thesis, I confirm that, as regards the content and format of the manuscripts, the publishers have given me the right to publish the respective papers electronically to make them freely available on KIT's central repository KITopen.
